
Verkmenntaskólinn á Akureyri - VMA

— Professionalism - Variety - Respect —

Verkmenntaskólinn á Akureyri

- VMA is an upper secondary school (age 16-19)
- The school was established 1984
- The building is 14.500 m².
- Number of staff 140
- Number of students 1100

Variety and inclusion

- Offers a variety of studies for all types of students
- Studies in technical and industrial fields as well as academic fields
- Studies for students with disabilities and students in need for extra support and supervision

Academic studies

- Natural science
- Social science
- Sport science
- Art and design
- Business and economics
- Matriculation with vocational studies

Technical studies

Electrical technology

- Electrician
- Electronics

Metal and engineering

- Auto mechanics
- Welding
- Marine engineering

Vocational studies

Building and construction

- Carpentry
- Masonry
- Plumbing
- House painting

Hair dressing department

Culinary

- Cooking
- Meat processing
- Catering
- Food technology
- Baking

Assistant nursing

Studies for students with special needs

- Support and supervision
- Introduction to vocational studies and working environment
- Work placements to aim for jobs

Service for students

- Student counselling - academic and personal tutoring
- School nurse
- Project manager for kids at risk
- Psychologist
- Dormitory in cooperation with Menntaskólinn á Akureyri (an academic secondary school)

